HOW TO PLAY

1

Wear your agent RFID wristband. It will be used to navigate you around the game missions and track your performance.

2

Get inside a mission, choose difficulty and begin the game.

THE AGENT FACTORY EXPERIENCE

Unleash the Ultimate Espionage Mission at Agent Factory! Nestled in an abandoned factory, our thrilling indoor entertainment experience immerses players in covert operations. Enveloped in Agent X's rich lore, become elite secret agents as you navigate the state-of-the-art training ground. RFID wristbands track your progress, making the mission interactive. Test your skills with challenges, daring rescues, and mind-bending puzzles. Expert instructors push your limits, honing your wit and teamwork. Elevate your venue with Agent Factory - an unforgettable, ageless experience, as guests transform into secret agents, creating memories that last!

3

Try to beat the clock playing a variety of missions, including physical, skills and brain quests.

4

When you succeed, visit a different mission. There are plenty to play at!

5

Measure your points at the live scoreboards at the venue. Don't stop before winning the precious Agent Certificate!

THE SOFTWARE

Agent Factory runs on a cutting-edge software combining RFID, IoT and cloud technologies. Our software ensures seamless connectivity and optimal performance.

Player profiles, team stats, high scores and more are stored through RFID wristbands on our cloud server.

Touchscreens, wristbands and missions seamlessly exchange data, providing an immersive experience.

The venue management is made easy through a simple admin interface, tracking player data and payments.

Players can access their profiles, view stats and high scores, and enjoy loyalty rewards on the website.

On the registration screens, the players can quickly enable their wristbands and create their team.

Outside each mission, players can see the availability on the screen and scan their wristbands to enter.

Inside the mission, the team can choose the difficulty and check the game time running.

Across the venue, scoreboard screens are displaying live results and leaderboards.

Our operations software allows the venue staff to accept payments, edit the game details & function the customer experience smoothly.

COMMITMENTS

We will deliver to you our detailed documentation of the venue in guidelines, manuals & plans. Based on them, you will have to prepare some infrastructure, prior to our arrival to install your new entertainment center:

- The configuration of the reception and common areas, in accordance with our suggestions.
- The supply of the main/high electricity panel of the space.
- The electrical & data cabling ending up on each separate mission, based on our delivered plans.
- The venue's air conditioning & ventilation system.
- The drywalls of the venue, according to the plans.
- The installation of fire security & venue exit doors / fire & safety.
- The painting/configuration of the main surrounding walls, if desired.
- The transportation of the game props from the loaded truck to the exact indoor construction location.
- the transportation of waste/debris from the business premises, or the presence of a waste bin outside the venue for as long our team installs the games to your venue.

FAQ

⚙️ How does Agent Factory compare to other entertainment offerings?

Agent Factory stands out because it offers a truly 360-experience. The players can enjoy competitive socialising thanks to the RFID wristbands and the software that measure their game stats. In Agent Factory, players are directed by the interactive screens and play the game without the necessity of staff guiding them, while the owners can administrate the game and the daily finances with just a few clicks.

⚙️ How does Agent Factory work?

Participants become elite secret agents and embark on a series of thrilling missions led by the notorious mutant super-spy, Agent-X. The game utilizes RFID wristbands for an interactive experience, allowing players to track their progress through the exciting challenges.

⚙️ Who can play?

Agent Factory is accessible for a wide age range. We suggest a minimum age of 9 years old.

How much should I expect to invest?

— 15 Agent Factory missions, which is the minimum project number, come at the price of 330,000€. Beyond this, you should expect a monthly marketing fee at 500€ and a license fee at 1€/player, or alternatively an annual all-included 25,000€ fee.

How can the Loyalty Scheme benefit my venue?

— The Loyalty Scheme offered by Agent Factory adds a game-changing element to your venue. It incentivizes customers to return for more thrilling missions, as they accumulate points, rewards, and exclusive benefits, fostering customer loyalty and driving repeat visits.

Is Agent Factory easy to integrate into my existing entertainment venue?

— Yes, absolutely! Agent Factory is designed to be easily integrated into your entertainment venue. Our team will assist you in setting up the experience, and our experts will ensure a seamless process for your guests.
